A photograph of a room corner. On the left is a white built-in bookshelf with three visible shelves. The top shelf is filled with a stack of books, some with colorful spines. A green plant in a brown pot sits on the top shelf. The middle shelf also has a stack of books. The bottom shelf has more books and a green plant. To the right of the bookshelf is a window with white horizontal blinds. A large potted plant with green leaves is in the foreground on the right, in a tall, clear glass vase. The room has white walls and a white baseboard.
