Find your architect ^[1]

The Architects' Association of Catalonia has close to 10,000 registered members: a wide range of professionals with experience in the construction sector, expert in the latest technologies and technical solutions and well-qualified to fulfil your requirements.

Whether you are looking for architects specialised in building projects, renovation or town planning or if you simply need contact details for a specific architect or firm, the COAC can assist you.

ARCHITECT SEARCH ENGINE

The COAC can provide you with contact details for its almost 10,000 registered members. Using the search engine you can quickly and easily identify the contact details of Association members and professional bodies.
